

NSCAA Assistant Coach of the Year Award

The NSCAA Assistant Coach of the Year award is designed to highlight outstanding assistant coaches at the college and high school levels. The program recognizes two national winners (one college, one high school) and eight regional winners (four each for college and high school). All winners will receive a plaque in honor of their achievement.

- The Glenn "Mooch" Myernick College Assistant Coach of the Year: This will be awarded to coaches who assist in a senior or junior college men's or women's program. The national winner will be announced at the Awards Banquet on Friday evening at the 2010 NSCAA Convention. The four regional winners will be presented at the College Coaches function in Philadelphia.
- High School Assistant Coach of the Year: This will be awarded to coaches who assist in the high school programs for either boys or girls. A high school assistant will be defined as any coach working in the modified or junior varsity program as well as coaches that are designated as assistant varsity coaches. The winner will be announced at the Awards Banquet on Friday evening at the 2010 NSCAA Convention. The four regional winners will be presented at the High School/Youth Awards Breakfast in Philadelphia.
