

NSCAA Special Topics Course

FUNCTIONAL TRAINING

IN THE 4-3-3 SYSTEM

Presented by NSCAA President and
University of Notre Dame Women's Coach

RANDY WALDRUM

Saturday, August 1, 2009, 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.
National Soccer Hall of Fame, Oneonta, New York

Cost: $50
(includes T-shirt and box lunch)

The National Soccer Coaches Association of America presents a Special Topics Course by Academy Staff Coach Randy Waldrum, the women's coach at the University of Notre Dame and current NSCAA president. Waldrum led the Irish to the 2004 NCAA national championship and has coached players to three Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy selections.

Including both classroom and on-field presentations, the course will be beneficial to coaches of advanced youth and high school players. It is one of a number of activities being held in conjunction with the Big 3 Hall of Fame Weekend at the National Soccer Hall of Fame, located just off Exit 13 of Interstate 88 in Oneonta, N.Y. For further information, contact Pamela Frutiger at the National Soccer Hall of Fame at 607-432-3351 or via email at pamela@soccerhall.org. Registration deadline is July 24.

NSCAA Special Topics Course

Name _____ Email _____

Address _____ City _____ State _____ ZIP _____

Phone _____ T-Shirt Size (circle one): S M L XL

To pay by credit card:

Name on Card (please print) _____

Type of Card: American Express Discover MasterCard Visa

Card Number _____

CV Code _____ Expiration Date _____

Signature _____

To pay by check:

Make check payable to "NSHOF" and return with this form by July 24 to:

Pamela Frutiger
NSHOF
18 Stadium Circle
Oneonta, NY 13820