

Creating Sustained Success: Delivering a World Class Player Performance Model for an Elite European Champions League Club

Speaker: Michael Forde (Performance Director at Chelsea FC)

Areas to cover include:

- Strategies to create a Winning Environment for Sustained Success.
- Building and Leading a High Performance Management team.
- The use of innovative medical, sport science and psychological techniques to create a winning edge.
- Developing a team environment to maximise player performance across different stages of a player's career.
- Identifying, Screening and recruiting elite players.
- Developing a Winning Mindset in Players.
- Handling a Multi-Cultural group of elite players within a team dynamic.
- Balancing the demands of a 60 game season whilst also preparing for the future.