2010 FIFA World Cup Media Panel

Media panelists (Ray Alley, Southern Soccer Scene; JP Dellacamera, ESPN; Paul Kennedy, Soccer America; Michael Lewis, New York Daily News and bigapplesoccer.com) review the World Cup Draw and what it means for the United States team. Can it repeat its success at the Confederations Cup? Also, who got the proverbial “Group of Death” and who has the easiest path to the Final? Prominent media from broadcast and print have been invited to share their observations.
