

2010 NSCAA Convention Clinic Outline Book

Oscar Hernan Gil Rincon, U-15 Boca Juniors Coach, Argentina

Neuro-Linguistic Programming: What it is and How Argentine Players Develop it Naturally

The concept of tactics in Argentina is different from the rest of the world, Boca Juniors is the development of the physical, technical and tactical that goes together in an integrated model of training. The natural processes of growth and development is similar to what happens in other countries, but the 1v1 dual confrontation and high intensity in training and competition are the features that make Argentine football unique in the world.

